

Call for Special Issue Proposals for Vol. 9, No. 1, 2024

Culture, Practice & Europeanization's permanent open call welcomes not only manuscript submissions, but also proposals for special issues from guest editors.

Special issues have a specific focus on a particular topic or field for which the guest editors have expertise. The editors' task is to write and circulate a call for papers, select the contributions and organise the review process according to CPE's usual requirements. Before publication, the guest editors hand over the final manuscripts and the reviews to the editors. The guest editors ensure that CPE's manuscript formatting standards are implemented by the authors.

Acceptance of a proposal for a special issue depends on the international relevance of the topic, the expertise of the authors and the quality of the proposal. Send your proposal with an overview of the planned contributions to: vincent.gengnagel@uni-flensburg.de.

Issue proposal deadline for Vol. 9, No. 1: April 30, 2023. CfP timeline: Submission of abstracts by September 1, 2023, submission of papers by November 30, final papers by March 16, 2024.

Proposals for further issues are always welcome.

CPE: An international, double-blind peer reviewed journal

Culture, Practice & Europeanization \(CPE\) is an international, peer reviewed platform for publishing research-based articles predominantly dealing with research into the multiplicity of social processes, interactions, and policies relating to Europeanization and both international and intercultural encounters in Europe. CPE is an interdisciplinary journal with strong roots in sociology. CPE welcomes contributions that seek to enhance our understanding of social processes relating to internationalization, internationally relevant practices, and further transnational activities and processes in Europe.

CPE: An open access platform
